

THEY CAN'T SMELL
FLOWERS

A FILM BY
JEFFREY DECHAUSSE

DIRECTOR'S STATEMENT

While AI and robotics can replace us functionally, my purpose in creating the film "They Can't Smell Flowers" is to shed light on the emotional nuances that machines cannot grasp—the realms of love and pain that elude entities that lack a heart.

They Can't Smell Flowers

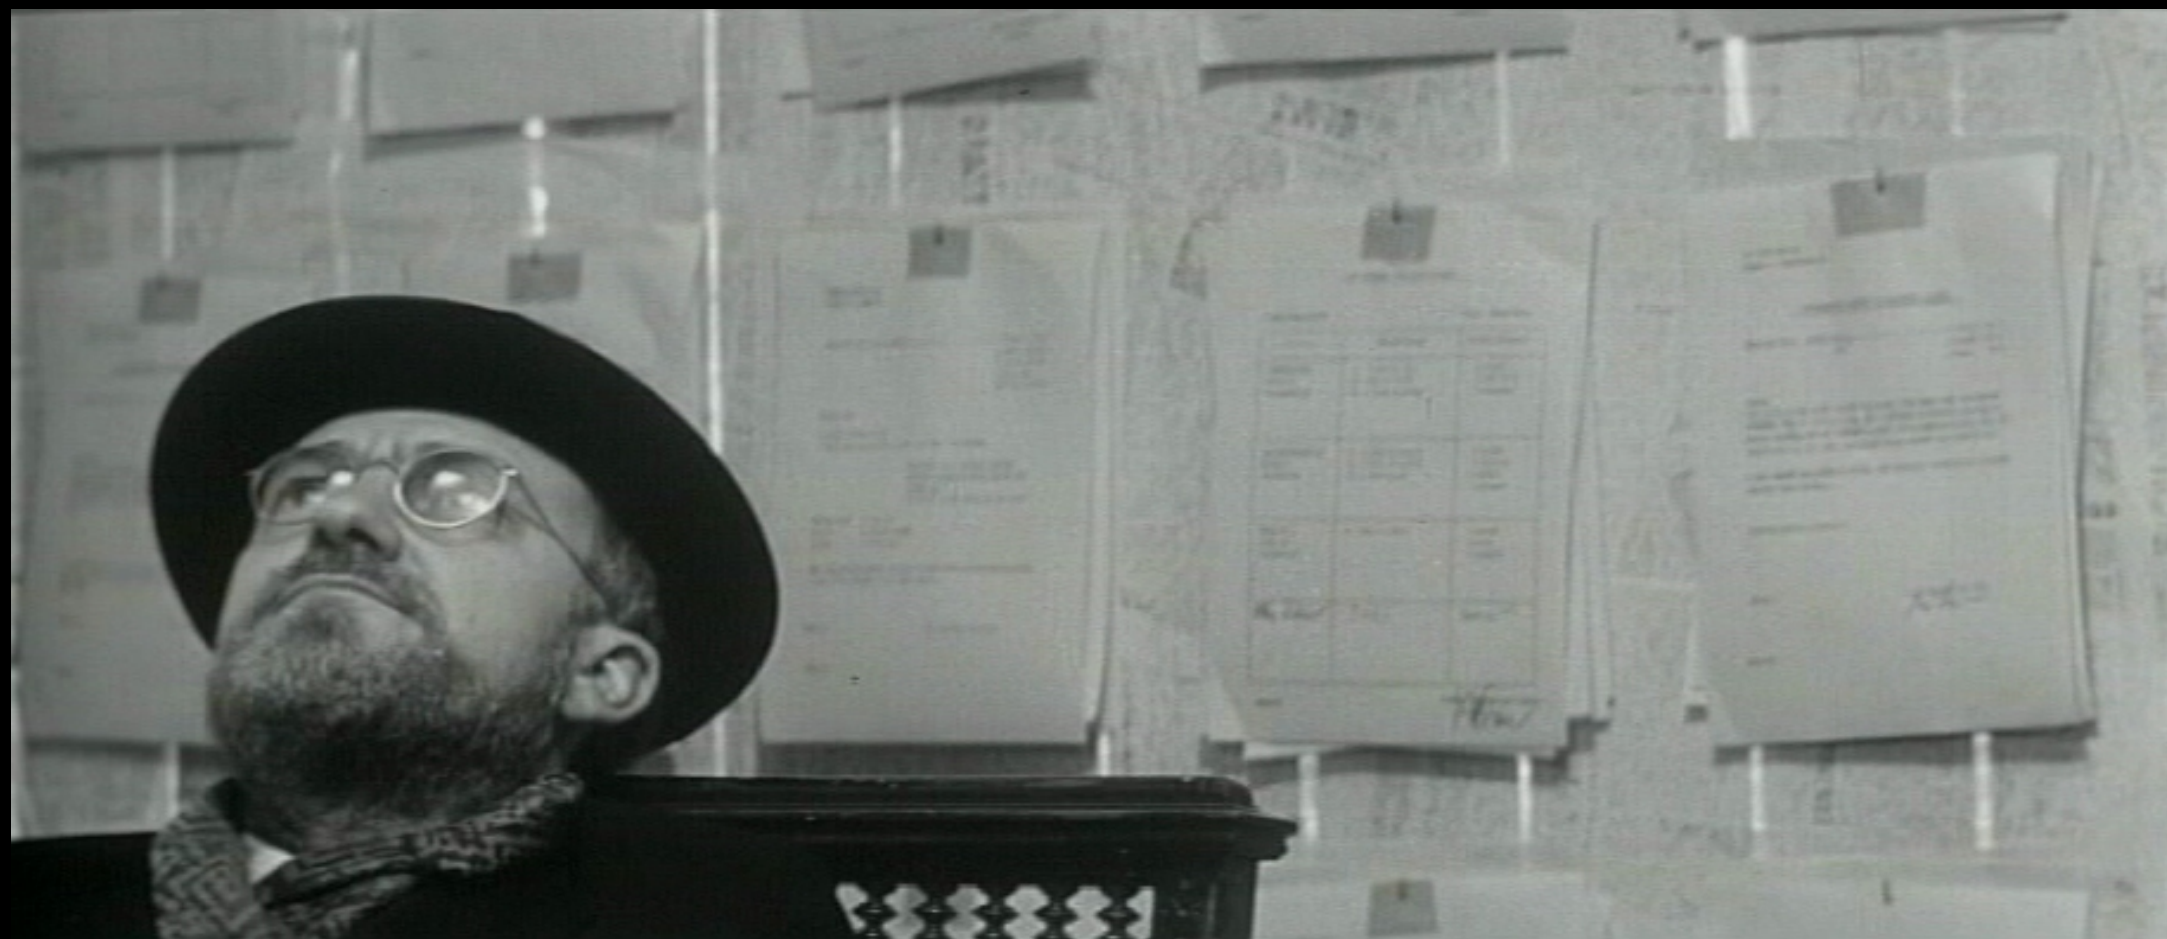

Look Book

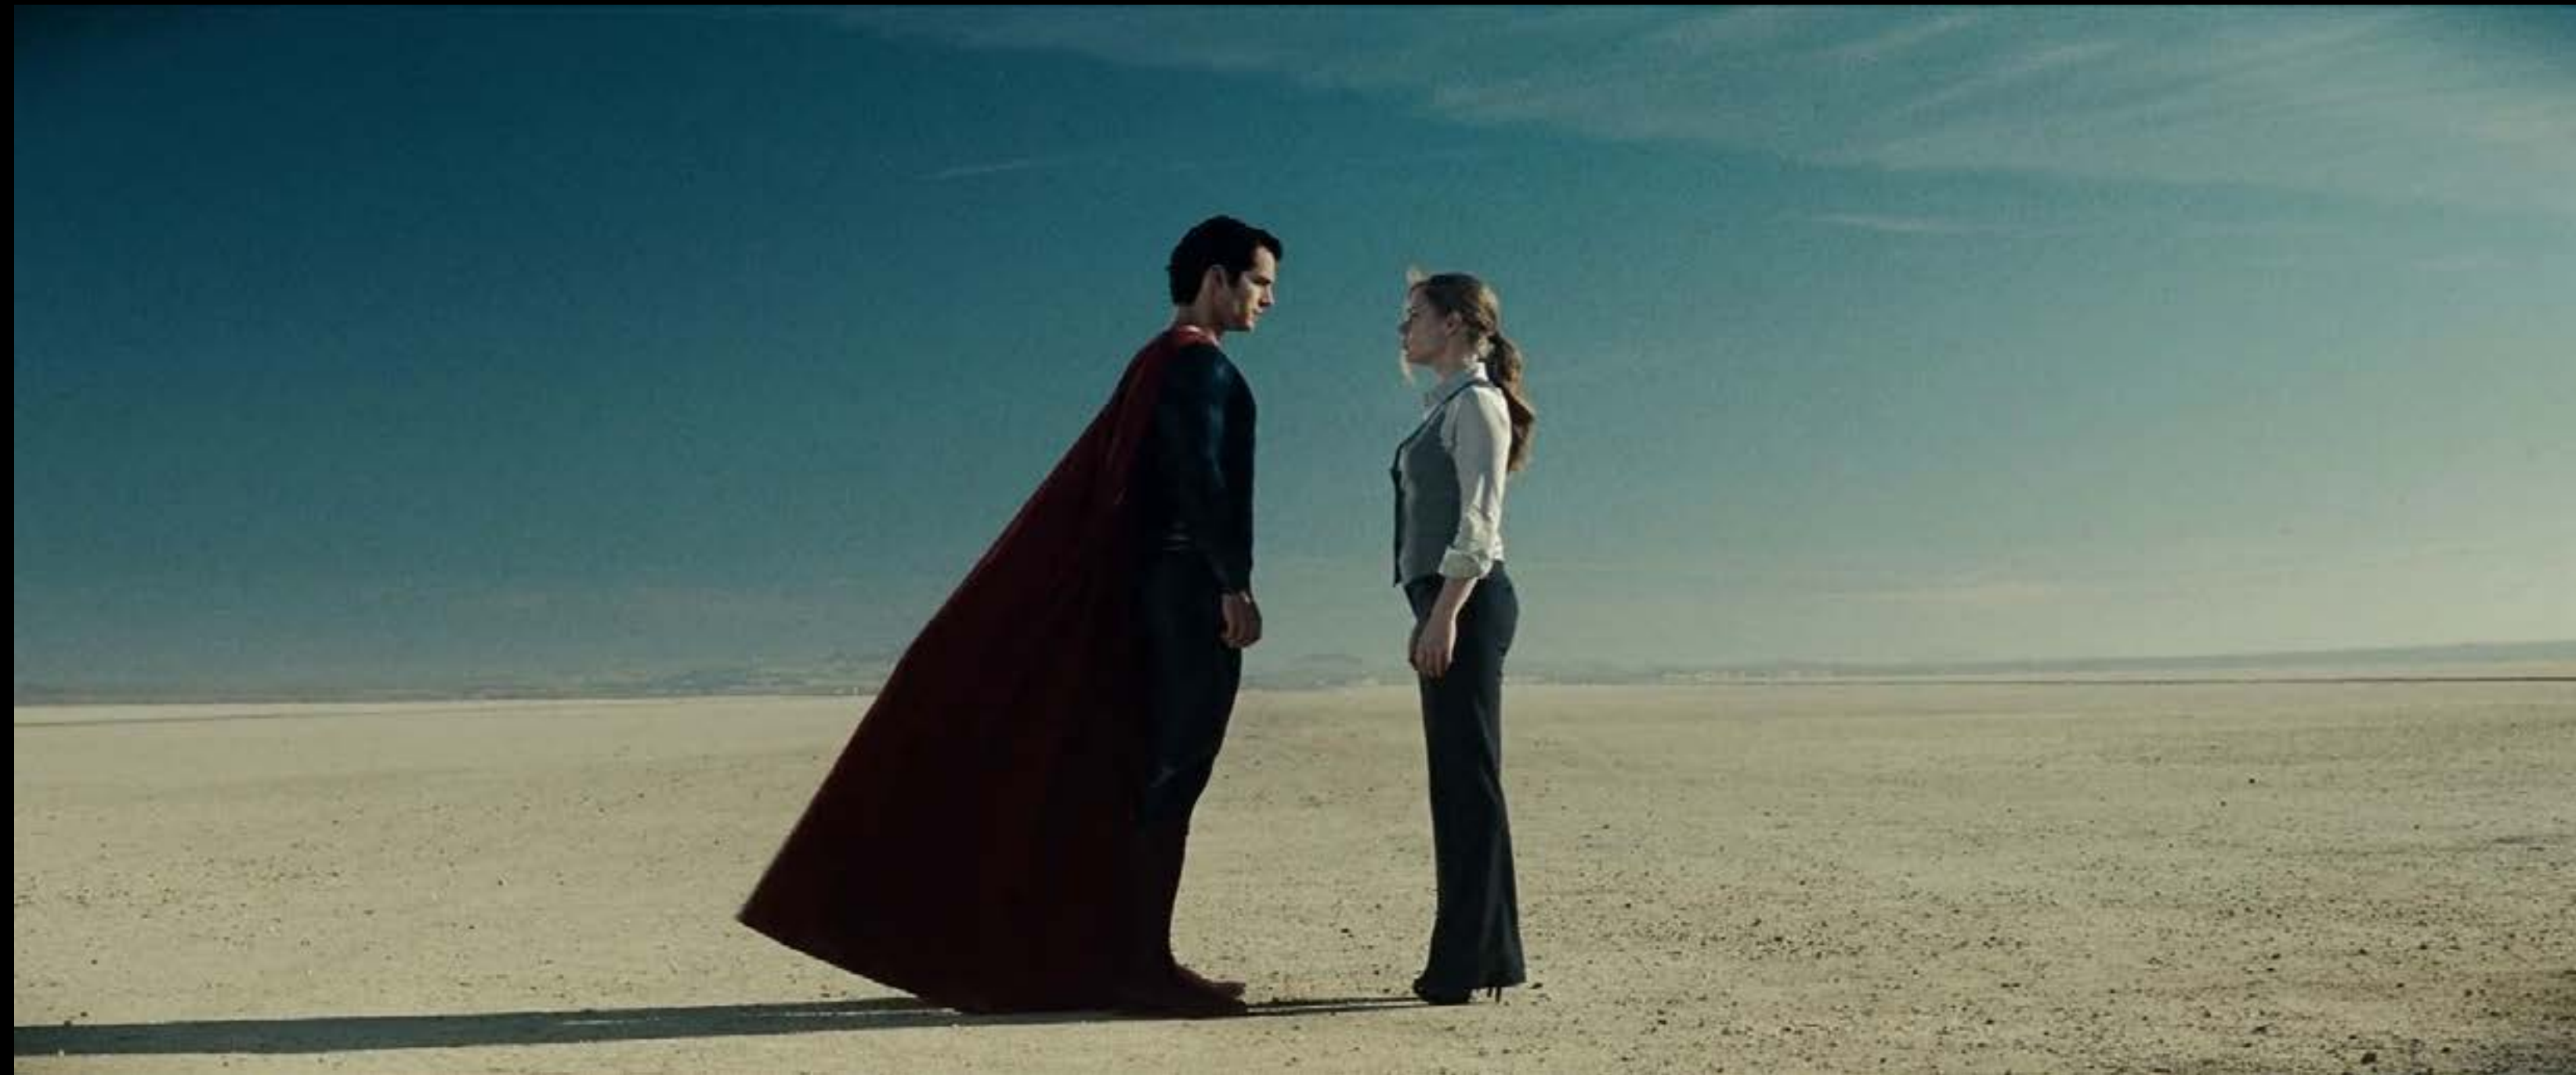

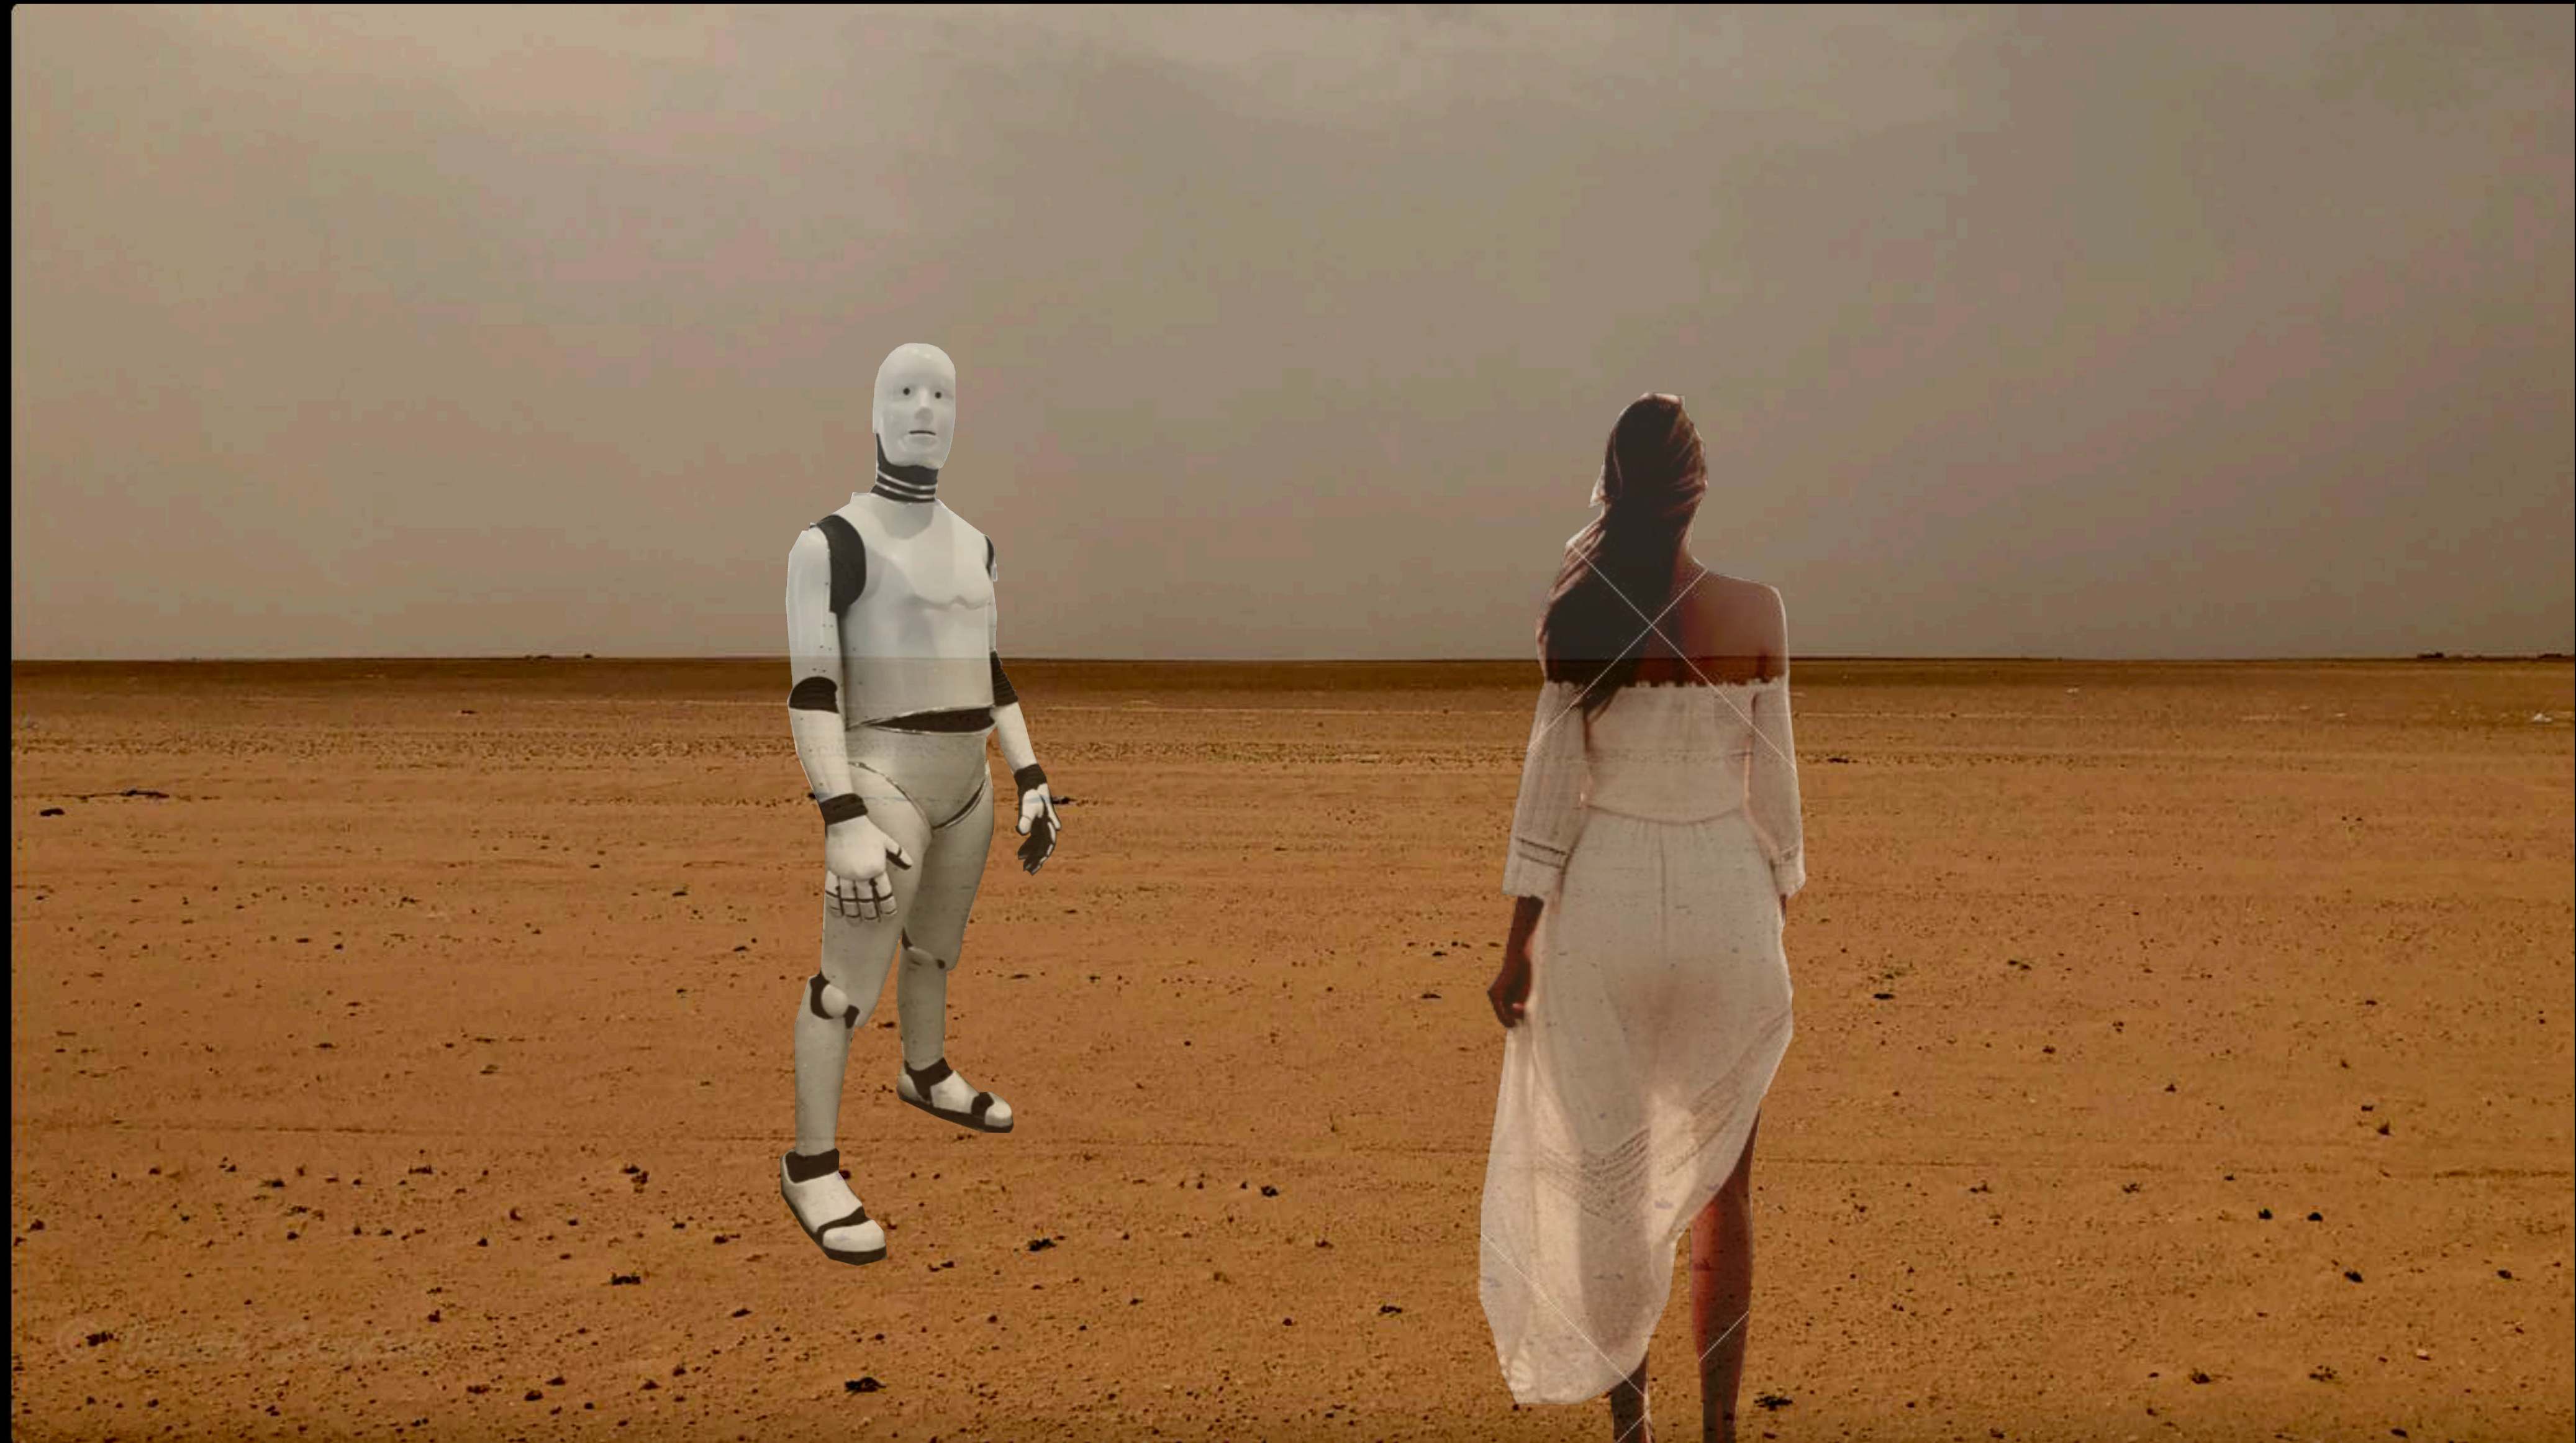

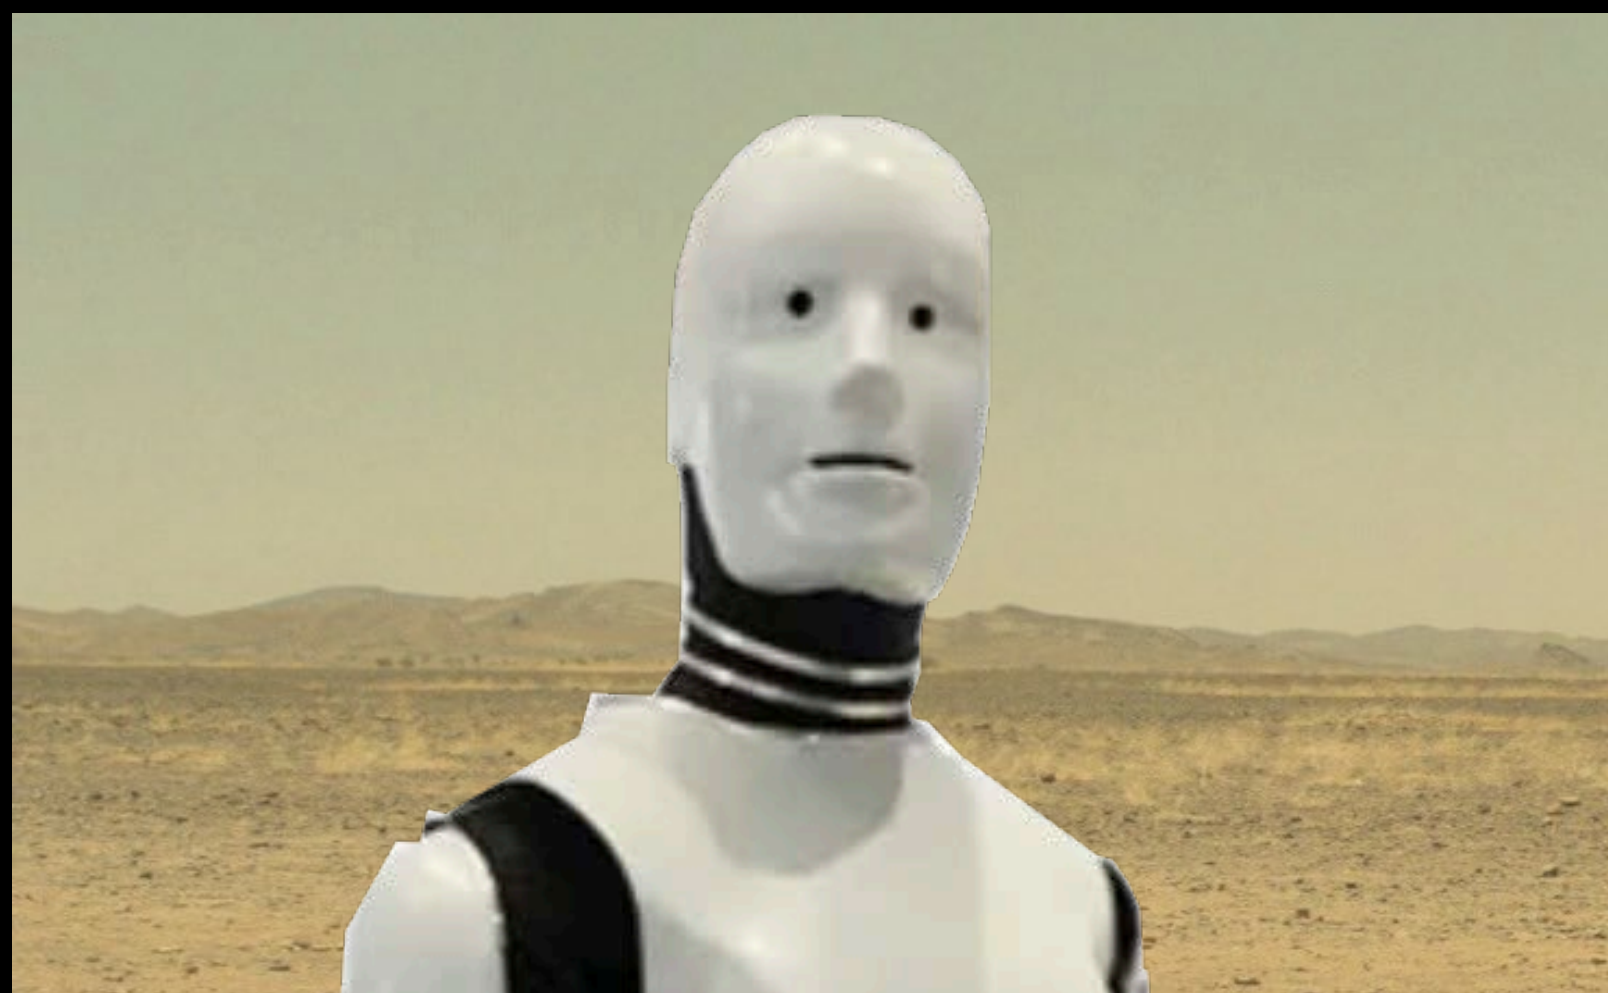

The background of the image is a solid black field filled with a dense, repeating pattern of small, stylized flowers. Each flower is primarily red with a white center, and they are scattered across the entire frame, creating a textured, floral effect.
